

2025
1/24
5 : 10 p m

Japan and me

Place : Eikei Top 15F

Date : Friday, January 24

NAME : Ms. BEALE Alison (Visiting Professor)

Content : I came to Japan right after university and have spent the last thirty years working on developing relationships between Japan and the UK. In this presentation I will talk about what brought me to Japan and why I never left and will also give my thoughts on the value of studying and working in an international setting. As I describe the evolution of my professional and personal interests here, I hope you may start to see Japan in a different way. This talk will be delivered in English. Both Japanese and non-Japanese participants are extremely welcome!

Application Deadline: 2025/1/22(Wed.) Noon

申込URL

<https://forms.office.com/r/HqVQWnGBLc?origin=lprLink>

@EVENING_LOUNGE_EIKEI

↑ Application Form

Ms. BEALE Alison
【Visiting Professor】

BEALE Alison

[Visiting Professor]

- Director, University of Oxford Japan Office
- After graduating from the University of Oxford she first came to Japan on the JET Programme before embarking on a career in international cultural relations principally with the British Council, holding senior posts in Japan, Trinidad and Tobago and China. She also obtained a Masters in Advanced Japanese Studies from the University of Sheffield. In her current role with the University of Oxford she develops links and partnerships for the University with businesses, foundations, alumni and media in Japan. She holds voluntary positions as Vice-President of the British Chamber of Commerce in Japan, Executive Director of the Japan-British Society, and is on the Board of the New National Theatre Tokyo and the Inamori Foundation.

